“Go through Acts and in every instance when we are told either that the Spirit came upon these men or that they were filled with the Spirit, you will find that it was in order to bear a witness and a testimony.”

Martyn Lloyd-Jones, Joy Unspeakable

“The people [in our church] are taking healing and other supernatural gifts to the streets, leading many who otherwise would not be open to the message of the gospel to Christ... the gifts are not confined to church services: they are tools employed in reaching the lost.”

John Wimber, Power Evangelism

o “disciple”:

o help others to understand, apply
and live out Jesus’ teachings.

passing along, Jesus saw a man at his work collecting taxes. His name was Matthew. Jesus said, "Come along with me." Matthew stood up and followed him.

After when Jesus was eating supper at Matthew's house with his close followers, a lot of disreputable characters came and joined them.

There was a man there, his name Zacchaeus, the bad tax man and quite rich. He wanted desperately to see Jesus, but the crowd was in his way—he was a short man and couldn't see over the crowd. So he ran on ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree so he could see Jesus when he came by.

When Jesus got to the tree, he looked up and said, "Zacchaeus, hurry down. Today is my day to be invited to eat in your home."

Accchaeus scrambled out of the tree, hardly believing his good luck, delighted to take Jesus home with him. Everyone who saw the incident was indignant and grumped, “What business do we have getting cozy with this crook?”

Accchaeus just stood there, a little stunned. He mumbled apologetically, “Master, I give away half my income to the poor—and if I’m caught cheating, I pay four times the damages.”

Don't loiter and make small talk with everyone you meet along the way.

When you enter a home, greet the family, 'Peace be upon you'. If your greeting is received, then it's a good sign you have permission to stay. But if it's not received, take it as a sign to leave. Don't impose yourself."

Luke

Ermias

Jesus explained himself at length. “I’m telling you this straight. The Son can’t independently do a thing, only what he sees the Father doing. What the Father does, the Son does. The Father loves the Son and includes him in everything he is doing.”

pressed [his disciples], “And how about you?
Who do you say I am?” Simon Peter said, “You’re the Christ, the Messiah, the Son of the living God.”

Jesus came back, “God bless you, Simon, son of Jonah! You didn’t get that answer out of books or from teachers. My Father in heaven, God himself, let you in on this secret of who I really am.

Let's do what Jesus
did

with (could be anyone in our various communities)

Love people, get to know people:
“share what you love with those you love”

Be ready to pray for the sick or troubled

If they're interested, spend more time with them learning about Jesus together. If not,
