

Stepping aside to realign ourselves with God's adventure for our lives

Consecrate yourselves, for tomorrow the LORD will do amazing things among you.' Joshua 3:5

Moses and the Burning Bush

- What does turning aside mean for you?
- What does taking off your shoes and coming on to holy ground mean for you?

- What has God called you to? (Hints:- What makes you sad? What makes you mad?)
- What is God's assignment for your life? (Hint:-What prophetic words have been spoken over your life?)
- What is the community that God is inviting you to bringing His life into?

1'But,' objected Moses, 'suppose they do not believe me or listen to me? For they may say, 'The Lord did not appear to you.' 2The LORD said to him: What is in your hand? "A staff," he answered. 3 God said: Throw it on the ground. So he threw it on the ground and it became a snake, and Moses backed away from it. 4 Then the LORD said to Moses: Now stretch out your hand and take hold of its tail. So he stretched out his hand and took hold of it, and it became a staff in his hand. 5 That is so they will believe that the LORD, the God of their ancestors, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, did appear to you. -----10 Moses, however, said to the LORD, "If you please, my Lord, I have never been eloquent, neither in the past nor now that you have spoken to your servant; but I am slow of speech and tongue." 11 The LORD said to him: Who gives one person speech? Who makes another mute or deaf, seeing or blind? Is it not I, the LORD? 12 Now go, I will assist you in speaking and teach you what you are to say

- In relation to God's invitation to go on an adventure what objections do you bring up?
- What are you afraid off?
- What is your staff? What skills, talents and experience do you have which God is inviting you to give to Him so that He can use them in a new way?

The God who is in control over every contingency
